The Mexican crisis has about petered out. Secretary Lansing has gone fishing for a month, leaving its adjustment to the young man in his office, Frank Polk, who will take it up with Carranza's young man, Arrendo, as soon as they get time and feel like it. As Carranza has agreed to be good, they have an easy job.

There are other sharks preying upon the guests at Asbury Beach, N. J., this season, besides the hotel keepers. On July 2nd a young man was killed in the water by a man-eating shark and the same thing happened on July 4th. On the 8th another, or perhaps the same one, was seen and chased off, and still another was seen in New York bay. Very naturally, bathing in the surf is losing its popularity.

The Yaqui Indians, a ferocious tribe of 10,000, with 4,000 fighting men, are giving the Carranza soldiers much trouble in Sonora. It is reported that they attacked and exterminated 300 soldiers last week, burning at the stake the survivors of the battle. This happened while most of the troops were mobilized near the Arizona border.

RUSSIANS UNCHECKED

Cut Off Gen. von Bothmer from Supply Pass--Brussiloff Near Stokhod River.

HARDECOURT CAPTURED

By the British on the Western Front--Lull at Verdun.

London, July 10.—The Eastern front continues to overshadow the Western front from the spectacular viewpoint, the Russian forces going from success to success. Not only Gen. Tetchitzky in the South occupied the railroad junction at Delatyn, west of Kolomea, thus cutting off Gen. Von Bothmer from his supply base, but Gen. Brussiloff in the North is making surprising advances on both sides of the Kovel railway toward the Stokhod river.

Russian communications report the enemy forces in this region retiring in great disorder and add that the Russians have occupied Huteviche, which is 24 miles to the east of Kovel, while apparently the Russians are already across the Stokhod river somewhere in the region of Janovka.

German possession of Baranovich and Kovel are absolutely essential if she is to retain her hold over the invaded parts of Poland and Lithuania, but it is considered likely that it is only a matter of few days before the Russians will be in possession of Kovel, which would compel Gen. Linsingen's retirement from the Lutsk salient.

It is reported from Rome at a recent council of German and Austrian marshals, Gen. Von Hindenburg declared that it would be impossible to attempt a new offensive on a large scale without reinforcements of at least a quarter of a million men.

LITTLE CHANGE IN WEST.

The news shows little change in the relative positions on the Western front. Berlin admits the loss of Hardecourt.

The fighting between the Anece and Somme rivers continued Saturday night, although with less violence than during the preceding two days. The war office announced that further progress had been made by the British near Ovillers and that in another sector a group of defended buildings had been captured.

A German aeroplane appeared over the English coast Sunday but was driven off and dropped no bombs.

POLICE SEEK AUTO ROBBERS

Four Occupants of Big Red Car Rob Van Cleve's Storehouse.

Now is the time for some Hopkinsville Sherlock to appear on the scene and help Sheriff Smith and Chief of Police Roper out of their trouble. They are scratching their heads over the work of four bold automobile robbers who have been operating in the county.

Sunday afternoon, four white people, two men and two women, in a big red car, went to the house of one of the tenants on the farm of J. J. Van Cleve, on the Clarksville pike, and asked a little negro boy, who was alone on the place, for a drink of water. He gave it to them. They made inquiry and learned that he was alone. They then broke into the storehouse and took a ham, a large bucket of lard and some other meat.

The automobile was seen on the streets here after the robbery. The people had a tent pole and some other tent riggings in the car. No one can find out where they came from here, where they went or anything about the mysterious case of the auto bandits.

KITTY STARTS SECOND SEASON

First Division of Race Proves Successful; Teams to Be Strengthened.

President Frank Bassett has decided to divide the Kitty league race into two halves, making the first division of the race end with Sunday's games. The second season starts today. The reason for making two separate divisions in the race is in order that the teams getting off bad in the first race can issue a call for recruits and strengthen their ranks enough to put them in the running the second season.

The league season has been considered absolutely successful and none of the teams in the league want to retire from their places. The amateur restrictions put on the league by Dr. Bassett have made the teams become well balanced and the plan has worked wonders.

For the second season all the teams will be strengthened. Many had players to leave with the Kentucky National Guards and others have allowed their ranks to become ragged in other ways. All the cities in the circuit will get new men to liven up the personnel of their squads.

Hopkinsville intends to put in its appearance for the second season with practically a new team. The efforts to get Bill Schwartz for manager was successful. Schwartz has been offered a place as umpire in the Southern League but he preferred to accept the place with the Hoppers which will allow him to stay in the game.

STANDING OF KITTY LEAGUE.

The teams stood as follows at the end of the first season:

	Won	Lost	Pct.
Clarksville.....	35	14	.715
Henderson....	32	17	.654
Owensboro....	26	22	.540
Dawson Spgs....	23	25	.480
Madisonville....	19	31	.384
Hopkinsville....	13	36	.260

Bill Schwartz, the lengthy ex-manager of the Nashville Volunteers, arrived in town yesterday morning and held lengthy conversation with Dr. Frank Bassett. Schwartz will start in rightaway as manager of the Hoppers and will make a bunch of changes in the line-up. He has his eye on Cleveland, a new outfielder. Matthews, a new infielder, and a pair of twins, the Jonnard brothers, who will do battery work. Other additions and changes in the team are in prospect.

HOTEL MAIN NOW OPEN

Doors Thrown Open To The Public Yesterday Morning.

G. L. TYLER, LANDLORD.

Has Had Much Experience In Hotels Of The Larger Cities.

The Hotel Main, Hopkinsville's newest enterprise, swung back its hospitable lobby doors yesterday at six o'clock and proprietor G. L. Tyler put a weight down to hold them back. They will now be open all the time to transients and everybody who wants meals, rooms or both.

The hotel is absolutely new. Its floors and wood work were shiny with polish. The building is a big three-story brick structure on the corner of Main and Fifth streets. It has a big open lobby with the customary hotel equipment and appearance and a hall, with the ladies' entrance at the side. The spacious dining room, with nine tables, is also on the first floor.

Monday morning the cook, stove, dishes, tables, waiters and all the dining room paraphernalia had their first trial at breakfast. Everything worked splendidly and the guests who were at the meal were all delighted.

The guest who signed his name first on the register book was T. M. Haye of Louisville.

The hotel has twenty-five bed rooms. They are all newly furnished. There are rooms suited for both single and double use. Each room is equipped with an individual stationary washstand. There are two toilet rooms on each floor.

Saturday night Mr. Tyler had a formal opening of the hotel to let the people of Hopkinsville visit it and go through the rooms before they were opened up to the public. Between five and six hundred persons accepted his invitation and visited the hotel during the evening. An orchestra furnished music and refreshments were served.

Mr. Tyler makes a genial and efficient proprietor. He is anxious to please his patrons and has had many years of experience in hotel work. He had full charge of the Henry Watterson Hotel, in Louisville, at night for several years. He has been connected with the Tyler Hotel, at Louisville and the Hillman and Morris Hotels of Birmingham, Ala.

Mr. Tyler said this morning that it was not his purpose to enter into competition with the hotels which were already established in Hopkinsville, but that he believed the growing conditions of the city made an urgent need for such a hotel as the Hotel Main promises to be.

SUFFERING IS ENDED

Victim of Tuberculosis Passes Away After Illness of Several Months.

Mrs. Georgia Ann Alder, wife of Mr. F. M. Alder, died Sunday at her home near Carl. She had been a sufferer from tuberculosis for several months. The deceased was 53 years old and is survived by her husband and several children. Mrs. Alder was a Christian woman, held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. The interment took place in the Ebenezer burying ground yesterday.

NOTED GUEST HERE SUNDAY

Justice Jas. C. McReynolds Spent the Day With Relatives.

Justice James C. McReynolds, of the United States Supreme Court, was in Hopkinsville Sunday visiting his cousin, T. J. McReynolds. The fathers of Justice McReynolds and Mr. McReynolds, of this city, were double first cousins.

Justice McReynolds has been at his home in Elkton for a short time visiting his family there. He will leave shortly for California, where he will spend the summer months. The day here was spent quietly. Justice McReynolds was accompanied by his sister, Mrs. J. M. Zarecor. The trip here was made by automobile.

Headed Homeward.

The Rev. Dr. Charles F. Aked and Miss Emily Balch, delegates to the Neutral Conference for Continuous Mediation, left Stockholm for the United States to see Henry Ford regarding further work for peace. One suggestion is to combine the conference with the peace forces recently organized here. Another is that a committee be authorized to travel and get into personal touch with the warring Governments.

National Endeavor Convention

From Thursday of this week until next Sunday evening will be held the first All-South Christian Endeavor Convention. The meeting place is Atlanta, Ga., and it is expected that more than 3,000 registered delegates from the sixteen Southern States will be in attendance, besides a large number of visitors and officials who are interested in the movement. Nearly 200 delegates will go from Kentucky.

Commuted and Paroled.

Dennis Thomas, of Christian county, sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, was paroled Saturday, after sentence had been commuted to one to two years. He was sent for house-breaking.

Kincheloe One.

Six of the Kentucky Democratic Congressmen have been given certificates of nomination, as they have no opposition in the August primary.

Postponement.

It is quite likely that the meeting of the State Medical Society here this summer will be put off until October. A decision will be made soon.

Power of Speech Restored to Murray Man While He Is Asleep.

Murray, Ky., July 9.—The Rev. J. M. Story, a young minister of this county, lost his voice nearly a year ago and although he had consulted many specialists, nothing was ever done to relieve him and he had begun to think that his voice was gone forever when he awoke Friday morning to find that his voice had entirely returned and was of as good tone as ever.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION.

A civil service examination will be held in Hopkinsville on July 29th for stenographers and typewriters and for combined stenographers and typewriters. The examination is held for the purpose of securing a register of eligibles from which to fill vacancies. Both men and women will be admitted to the examination and applicants must be 18 to 50 years of age. Full particulars will be given by letter or personal application to Elbert Turner, local secretary or to secretary sixth civil service district, 403 Government Bldg., Cincinnati, O.

UNDERSEA MERCHANTMAN

From Germany Arrives In Baltimore Eluding All Blockades.

LOADED WITH DYESTUFF

Came Straight From Germany In a Run of Sixteen Days.

Baltimore, July 10.—The world's first submarine merchantman, the German underwater liner Deutschland, anchored below Baltimore Sunday night after voyaging safely across the Atlantic, passing the allied blockading squadrons and eluding enemy cruisers watching for her off the American coast. She carries mail and a cargo of 750 tons of costly chemicals and dyestuffs and is to carry back home a similar amount of nickel and crude rubber, sorely needed by the German army. She arrived at quarantine, 4 miles below Baltimore at 4 p. m.

Sixteen days out from Bremerhaven to Baltimore, the submarine reached safely between the Virginia capes at 1:45 in the morning.

The Deutschland is no converted warcraft but a brand new commerce carrier, owned in Bremen and sent here on a purely commercial mission. The undersea liner is about 315 feet long and 30 feet beam and is propelled by two great Deisel oil engines. She is as large, if not larger, than any German naval submarine.

The Deutschland's cargo is consigned to a number of concerns, badly in need of dyestuffs.

When she will return and whether it is planned to have her make regular trans-Atlantic trips, her commander refused to discuss. If present plans are carried out, the public will not be allowed to inspect the undersea wonder, nor will anybody except the federal authorities be allowed to board her.

Wanted in Christian County.

The man who was arrested yesterday for trying to pass a forged check in R. H. Kaplan's store, and who said he was Frank H. Hendrix, of Christian county, it has been learned by the police, is also wanted in Hopkins county on a charge of forgery.—Courier-Journal.

ELKS THROG TO BALTIMORE

Candidates Open Headquarters, Bands Play and City Takes on Livelier Air.

Baltimore, Md., July 10.—More than a thousand Elks and their families have arrived here to attend the convention of the Grand Lodge of the order, which will begin today and last until Saturday. Hotel reservations have been made for nearly 10,000 out-of-town guests.

The two candidates for grand exalted ruler—Lloyd H. Maxwell, of Chicago, and Edward O. Righter, of New Orleans—have established headquarters here, and one of the liveliest contests ever waged for the chief office is in prospect.

NIGHT BLOOMING CEREUS.

The mangled body of Gilbert Sanders, private in battery B, First field artillery, New York national guard, was found near Springfield, Ill., Friday. It is believed Sanders fell off the second section of the New York troop train which passed and was run over by the third section.

Light Brigade, a famous English race horse, was aboard the Atlantic Transport Line steamer, Minnehaha, which reached New York Friday from London. The horse has been purchased for $50,000 by Senator Johnson N. Camden, and will be taken to his place near Versailles, in Woodford county, Ky.

The discussions over the proposed settlement of the Mexican trouble are about to begin between Arrédondo, the Mexican ambassador, and Counselor Frank L. Polk, of the State department. Carranza on Friday warned Gen. Funston to look out for a possible attack from Villa bandits headed toward the Texas border.

Surpassing even in importance the entente allies' great effort on the western front, the news from the eastern battlefield shows that the Russians have extended their offensive on an unprecedented scale. On the whole line from Riga to Baranovich, a distance of about 300 miles, the Russians are being hurled against the German lines.

All talk of an early departure for the border for the Kentucky troops was silenced Friday when the latest results from the federal examinations showed even deeper inroads into the strength of the Louisville companies than had already been made. The best opinion in camp is to the effect that the Kentucky boys will not be in shape to start for the border under a month.

Kissing one's divorced wife does not constitute a case of assault and battery, according to a decision of the court at Vincennes, Ind., who discharged John Everhart, of Sullivan county, in the trial case brought by Mrs. Everhart. She alleged her former husband called her to his buggy and kissed her twice. The Everharts, who are the parents of eight children, were divorced recently after having been married thirty-five years.

Of the remainder of the estate approximately $5,074,000 is bequeathed to the daughter, in a separate ten-year trust fund to be managed by her brother. A TWICE-TOLD TALE

Of Interest to Our Readers.

Good news bears repeating, and when it is confirmed after a long lapse of time, even if we hesitated to believe it at first hearing, we feel secure in accepting its truth now. The following experience of an Elkton man is confirmed after three years.

W. E. Watson, Produce Dealer, Elkton, Ky., says: "I had pain in the small of my back, which bothered me especially when stooping or lifting. My back ached at night and I was lame in the morning. I tried easily and had head aches and dizzy spells. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and colds settled in my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills did good work."

Over three years later, Mr. Watson said: "I seldom use Doan's Kidney Pills, but when I need them, I would pay $5.00 a box for them. They are worth that much to any one suffering from kidney trouble. Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Watson has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y."

Opera Tenors Peculiar.

"Operatic tenors are the most peculiar persons in the world to get along socially with," remarked a stage manager who was rehearsing a new operetta. "The very nature of their business makes them queer. I suppose, you see, they are under a continual nervous strain, have to take particular pains with their costumes, as well as be under continual guard of their voices at all times. They get snicky. I just had a setto with the tenor who is supposed to look pretty. This fellow had tried on the costume which had been furnished him. He did not like it and came to me with blood in his eye. 'You don't suppose I'm going to show up in this cheezy outfit, do you?' he said. I knew I had to humor him. So I sent the prop boy out and bought a bolt of pink ribbon, had the wardrobe woman decorate him with this in all kinds of fantastic rosettes and bows, and he was perfectly contented and said: 'Now, I look like something.' This is but one of the things a stage manager has to contend with."

WORLD'S BIGGEST GAS MAINS

Pipes With a Six-Foot Diameter Have Been Placed In Astoria-Bronx Tunnel.

The big gas mains in the Astoria-Bronx tunnel at New York are probably the largest cast iron pipes ever made, says Popular Science. The internal diameter is two feet three-quarter inches and the length twelve feet. The one end has the ordinary bell form; the other the spigot. The weight of one length is about 26,000 pounds.

These mains are laid parallel and run down a shaft at Astoria on Long Island, along a tunnel 225 feet below the surface, under East river, and then up a second shaft at One Hundred and Thirty-second street and East river. They are to carry gas into the Bronx, the most rapidly-growing borough of New York city.

It is not an impossibility that the tunnel may some time be flooded with water. Under such circumstances it would not be desirable to have the long lines of iron tubes begin to float. While the pipes are heavy enough to prevent their floating, the pressure is not great. The weight of water displaced by a cylinder twelve feet long and seventy-seven and one-half inches in diameter is between 24,000 and 25,000 pounds. The overlap where bell end encompasses spigot end complicates the matter a little, but after all allowances are made, there would probably be a good solid weight to the pipe lines if the tunnel were full of water.

The amount of lead used to calk the joints is about 225 pounds per joint. The mains rest on concrete saddles set six feet apart.

WORK FOR THE GEOLOGIST

Question of the Origin of Ore Deposits Has So Far Not Been Definitely Settled.

Steamboat springs, Nevada, figure prominently in discussions of the origin of ore deposits. The waters of these springs contain the precious metals in minute quantities, and the sinter deposited by them contains several minerals that are common constituents of ores, as well as small quantities of many of the rare metallic constituents of ore deposits, including gold and silver. Such springs, therefore, suggest to geologists that many and perhaps most ore-bearing veins have been formed by hot waters rising from great depths, which have brought their metal contents up in solution and deposited them in open spaces or fissures in the rocks through which the waters passed, the deposition of some ores being influenced by chemical reaction with the surrounding rock. On the other hand, many ore deposits are undoubtedly formed in other ways, for some are unquestionably of sedimentary origin and the metal content of some others has been carried down, redeposited, and concentrated by rainwater that descended into the earth's crust, but the "hydrothermal" origin—that is, their deposition from ascending hot water—of many of the more valuable ore deposits is indicated by the close relation observed at many places between mineral veins and eruptive rocks.

Arctic Adventure Overlooked.

In saying that Bradley Land has already appealed to our explorer, I must tell briefly of an attempt to reach it which was made in 1914 and 1915 by Messrs Rudolph Franke and Arthur Haack and which failed partly on account of unusual ice conditions. They sailed from Quebec on July 4, 1914, on the S. S. Guide, with the Canadian arctic explorer and fur trader, Capt. J. Bernier, who agreed to leave them at the entrance of Jones sound. On account of bad ice, they were unable to reach either Etah or Jones sound. After a summer spent in fighting the ice floes of Baffin Bay, they were finally tipped just south of the entrance of Lancaster sound and forced to winter there. While out hunting one day a great blizzard came on in which Mr. Haack was frozen to death. This ended Mr. Franke's hopes of trying to reach Bradley Land and he returned to Quebec with Captain Bernier to find himself a prisoner of war, a unique ending to an arctic voyage of exploration.—From a Letter by Edwin Swift Balch in Scientific American.

Stenographer Saved Employer's Family From a Long Summer Without Fresh Bread.

This is a tale wherein the stenographer was not only of vast assistance in the husband's office, but was invaluable to the wife, as well, for at least the summer months. The family bought one of the attractive camps in the Maine woods, well out of reach of real helpful civilization and never realized until they arrived and unpacked all the groceries that the one thing necessary to their happiness was not among them—a compressed yeast cake. And, what was worse, there was no place where they could get one; a summer of crackers stared them in the face. The wife, in despair, wrote to the stenographer to look up yeast cake of all kinds at once.

This valuable young person solved the problem with her usual promptitude by going to a first class grocery shop and leaving an order to have three perfectly good yeast cakes sent by mail three times a week at the market price of two cents each and two cents for first-class postage. The cakes arrived in perfect condition at regular intervals during the summer, and for once the wife joined the husband in giving full praise to a stenographer who justly deserved it.

TURKEY IS FULL OF SPIES

Some of Them Are Used to Keep Watch on Others, as None of Them Are Trusted by Authorities.

Turkey boasts of more spies to the square mile than any other country. The peculiar thing about these spies is that they cannot themselves be trusted, so that a regular chain of spies is the result. There are spies to spy upon the spies.

The government officials have their own spies to watch other people; but even the great authorities themselves are already being spied upon.

What is more, the method of spying is quite open, for the spies will stand by wherever two or three foreigners are gathered together, and listen to the conversation. Visitors to Turkey naturally get worried over such attention, especially when it might be their bad luck to be followed about for weeks or months.

It is the "uninitiated" visitor who usually receives the most attention, since he or she will carry on conversation in a quiet undertone. The person who knows Turkey will converse in a loud tone for all and sundry—the spies especially—to hear that he is only engaged in pleasure or legitimate business.

Politics is naturally given a back seat to avoid unnecessary trouble.—Answers.

To Mend China.

Put the pieces together carefully, tie firmly and boil in sweet milk for half an hour. China mended in this way will last for years. When washing fine chinaware, place two Turkish towels, one crossing the other, in the dishpan before filling it with hot water. Put only a dish or two in the pan at a time. Chinaware will not be likely to get nicked if this plan is followed.

expressing ingratitude.

The general cry is against ingratitude, but the complaint is misplaced; it should be against vanity; none but direct villains are capable of willful ingratitude; but almost everybody is capable of thinking he hath done more than another deserves, while the other thinks he hath received less than he deserves.—Pope.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

Pineville and Marion were changed from third to second-class post-offices. Bank System Increased Efficiency.

Under the Federal Reserve System in 1916, under the banking power of the United States through increased resources and deposits, and likewise through greater elasticity and availability, has an efficiency for the country's development over 40 per cent. higher than it had in 1912, with an absolute guaranty against panics.

The only criticism offered is that the margin of profit to the banker is smaller than under the old system. In other words, the bank has to render more service to the country to earn its dividend. Will the Chicago platform set up this as an issue in the 1916 election.

What is Dust and Bad Air Costing You?

It is not only endangering the health of your wife and children in the home, but also cutting down the efficiency of yourself in business. Dust is the greatest foe of mankind. Dead air makes dead Brains. The Kingdom of death is dust, more than half of all dead in the world are due to the distribution and the breathing of dust.

Yellow fever was God Almighty's opinion of dust. Meningitis, Tuberculosis and Pulmonary disease is the Almighty's opinion of a careless home.

More women than men, three to one are sent to hospitals. This comes in large degree from the fact that women stay at home and breathe a dust laden, second-hand atmosphere blown in from the streets and neglected factory districts which depletes their vitality.

The benefits of sleeping out of doors will be overcome and neutralized if we live in a thickly populated district, where dust is being constantly distributed by traffic and the air is second-hand.

Children in arms are practically immune from diseases common to children; Diphtheria, Whooping cough Measles, etc. Only after the child begins to run out into the street where are found the foul air and disease germs, does he contract ailments.

Each and every one who reads these words, stop and think, are you doing your duty to yourself and family? To people of means and discriminating taste the S. Y. TRIMBLE ADDITION on South Virginia street, opposite the Fair Grounds offers a limited number of natural and beautiful settings for ARTISTIC HOMES of modern construction, where all improvements are now being installed.

RESTFUL, HEALTHFUL, CONVENIENT, UNIQUE.

Don't you owe it to your family to give them a chance at this?

Nursery Stock Regulations.

New rules and regulations governing the importation of nursery stock in the United States have been issued by the Federal Horticultural Board and took effect on and after July 1. In the revised regulations the most important change is the provision which makes permits for the importation of nursery stock inspection, and for the importation of orchids and tree seeds from those which do not maintain such inspection, valid until revoked. Hitherto all permits had to be renewed each year. The other changes in the regulations are chiefly minor and matters of form.

Vote on Repeal.

Arkansas voters will decide at the ballot box in November whether to repeal the State-wide prohibition law passed by the last legislature.

Raises First Hundred.

Mrs. J. M. Kelly, of Lexington, has the distinction of being the first woman of the committee of one hundred to raise a hundred dollars. Within forty-eight hours after this committee met in the House of Representatives and voted to raise $10,000 for Kentucky's illiteracy work, Mrs. Kelly had her money in hand. She sent it in to Mrs. Morris Bartlett, chairman of the committee of one hundred, with the cheering words, "I also have $20 on second hundred." If the other 99 members of this committee are anything like Mrs. Kelly, great things may be expected of them, and the committee will go down in history for valiant services in Kentucky's Illiteracy Campaign.

TAX BOOKS ARE READY.

Sheriff Jewell Smith has begun collecting taxes for 1916. The tax books are all ready and Sheriff Smith asks that all the tax payers settle with him as soon as possible. R. L. Woodburn, of Kelly, who was the first man to pay his state and county taxes last year was the first man to settle up for his taxes this year also.

WAR! What Is It All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armor glistening just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia? Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions are being sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by some of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Just to get you started as a Review of Reviews subscriber, we make you this extraordinary offer. We will give to you

FREE—“Europe at War”

A big book and over 300 pages, size 10 x 7 inches, handsomely and durably bound in cloth, containing the dramatic history of the great events leading up to the present time; over 50 important and timely special articles by experts on the different phases of the conflict; hundreds of graphic pictures, portraits, photographs, diagrams, specially drawn war maps, illuminating statistical records, copies of official documents and diplomatic messages exchanged between the powers—a clear, vivid, accurate, permanent, interesting and valuable record—a record which once seen you will not willingly be without. Europe's past and present are here dramatically pictured and presented. Hundreds of illustrations graphically tell their own stories. More fascinating than any romance, here is a history so vivid, so dramatic, so stirring, so fascinating, so realistic, so wonderfully presented, so thrillingly told that it leaves an ineffable impression.

How to Be Happy.

There are two ways of being happy: we may either diminish our wants, or augment our means—either will do—the result is the same; and it is for each man to decide for himself, and do that which happens to be the easiest. If you are idle, or sick, or poor, however hard it may be to diminish your wants, it will be harder to augment your means. If you are active and prosperous, or young, or in good health, it may be easier for you to augment your means than to diminish your wants. But, if you are wise, you will do both at the same time, young or old, rich or poor, sick or well; and, if you are very wise, you will do both in such a way as to augment the general happiness of society.—Benjamin Franklin.

Will Sloan's Liniment Relieve Pain?

Don't keep on suffering, apply Sloan's Liniment where your pain is and notice how quick you get relief. Penetrates without rubbing. Buy it at any Drug Store, 25c.—Advertisement.

Kate Sanborn has recalled a blow to her vanity, as follows: "I asked," she says, "the carpenter to adorn a weather-beaten door with some putty and a coat of paint. Still Belief in Jonah.

There is still a firm belief in Jonah at sea; and the other day a sailor, who was prosecuted for failing to join a British admiralty transport, pleaded in excuse that he was known to seamen generally as Jonah and that the sailors, on the transport had threatened to throw him overboard if he did join. Certainly, if superstition ever could be rational, they had some reason for theirs. He had served on the Titanic and the Empress of Ireland, both of which were wrecked, and on the Lusitania and Florizan, both of which were torpedoed.

The Best Book

Of course the best book is the Bible. The man who said the best book was the pocket book, tried to say something smart and failed.

A bank book is a better book than a pocket book. The thief might steal your pocket book, or you might lose it in many ways. It's gone for good, too. But in case of accident we will gladly supply you with another bank book and your funds will always be secured in our bank. Place your dependence on a bank book in preference to a pocket book every time. We will furnish you a nice one free any time you wish to open an account.

HELP EMPLOYER TO SUCCEED

Worker Should Recognize That His Interests and Those of the Firm Are Identical.

The success of the firm where you are employed may be a more personal matter with you than you have any idea.

The way for men to improve conditions is to work together with the single aim of increasing production and reducing cost, preserving the standard. If for no other than a personal reason this should be the aim of the employee.

The more that is done by you to increase and improve the product of your firm, the more likelihood there is of your own wages being raised. A company which is losing money certainly cannot be expected to increase wages or to reduce the working hours of the company.

When you sell your services, the man paying for them has the right to expect the best you can give him. If he gets less than that from you he is not getting full value and you are not giving honest service.

The place where you are employed should not be considered merely from the fact that it provides your pay envelope.

You are an important part of the organization whose advancement and success depend on how you and your fellow workers succeed. Do your part, and also help to inspire the others to do as they should.—Chicago Examiner.

DREAD VOLCANIC SEA WAVES

Most Skillful Sailors Fear Disaster From Which Human Skill Cannot Save Vessel.

Occasionally there appears a great wave sweeping across the calm surface of the ocean in the fairest weather and when no wind is blowing. There are few perils of the sea to be more dreaded than such a wave. Fortunately these are very rare, yet more than once a ship has encountered one. A vessel of a British line not long ago was met by a wave of this kind, which rolled upon her like a wall of water, and, breaking against her sides, swept the deck with irresistible force, killing one sailor and seriously injuring others.

The cause of these singular waves is believed to be some disturbance of a volcanic nature at the bottom of the sea. Volcanoes exist in the ocean as well as on land; in fact, nearly all the volcanoes known are on or near the seacoast. It is easy to see that an upheaval at the seabottom may start a billow at the surface of the water, when we remember that it has been reported that huge waves have been sent clear across the Pacific to our coast by volcanic shakings of the earth on the borders of Asia.

The world under water is not only three times as extensive as that which is covered only with air, but it possesses many of the same great natural phenomena on a scale that is perhaps proportionately vast, but of whose existence we are made aware only by such indications as the volcanic ocean waves that ships occasionally encounter.

NOT TO BE BOTHERED AGAIN

Why Simon Mish Had the Chief Cause of His Trouble Taken Out of the House.

Simon Mish (an extremely busy man) was enjoying his first bath of the year. He splashed luxuriously, enjoying the unwonted sensation.

Suddenly the telephone bell rang. Simon Mish was alone in the house. The telephone bell continued to ring.

"Bother!" swore Simon Mish, and got out of the tub and went and answered it.

"Hello," said a strange voice. "Does Selig Wiffleshnk live here?"

Simon Mish slammed down the receiver and went back to his bath. (He was alone in the house.) Five minutes later the bell rang again. Again Simon Mish left his bath to answer.

"Hello," said a second strange voice.

"Is this the Mickentootie residence?"

Simon Mish positively hurried down the receiver and went back to his tub. A minute later (he was alone in the house) it rang again.

For the third time Simon Mish deserted the tub and answered the telephone, and a third strange voice said: "Hello, may I speak to Ihudorf Wish-washer?"

That evening Simon Mish had the thing taken out of the house.

No, gentle reader, not the telephone; the bathtub.—Buffalo News.

Straight Lines.

"Your work is imperfect," said the master, bending over a student and his work. "That line is not straight, and it ought to be perfectly true."

"I can straighten it," was the careless answer, and the student put out his hand toward the eraser, and put his pencil behind his ear.

"Do you not know that 'A straight line does not need to be straightened?' said the master gravely. "Perhaps you can straighten that crooked mark, but it will take time and skill, and how much better in any case to make a line in the first place that needs no correction. It is very hard to rub out a crooked mark, to make a place for a straight one."

How true this is in regard to a line of conduct. How wise and fine and every way better it is to do well in the first place, to do what cannot be questioned, and needs no "straightening out."

It Stopped the Bleeding.

My brother, during one of his surveying trips, met with a very painful accident, which would have proved fatal had not the cook acted promptly and with great wisdom. He was cutting down a bush when his ax slipped and nearly severed his toe. In a few minutes he was unconscious.

The cook tore off his shoe and sock, made a bandage of a clean towel, at the same time ordering one of the men to bring a large dish and the bag of flour. While they worked to revive my brother, he threw into the dish a quantity of flour; then placed the foot in the flour and proceeded to pack it solid with the flour. The bleeding soon stopped, for the blood could not penetrate so much flour. When the doctor arrived he expressed great surprise and told the cook he "had saved a life."—Exchange.

Poet's Strenuous Life.

A letter from Shelley, the poet, to a friend, which was recently sold at auction at $1,465 in New York, gives a picture of Byron's strenuous life: "Lord Byron gets up at 2 p. m. I get up at twelve. After breakfast we sit talking till six. From six to eight we gallop through the pine forests. We then come home and dine and sit up gossiping till six in the morning. I don't suppose this will kill me in a week or a fortnight, but I shall not try it any longer."

Everybody knows by this time that the prices on every kind of merchandise are advancing. Scarcely anything in piece goods or manufactured commodities in staple everyday merchandise that hasn't advanced at least 20 to 25 per cent., and won't get any cheaper as long as the fearful struggle in Europe lasts, and nothing indicates the cessation of hostilities in less than another year.
